Cat (Kath#1047) is an org assistant, Korean learner, ARMY and she is studying to be a neurosurgeon. Today, we are interviewing her as an org assistant.

CAT

Cat speaks on how close she and Griz are! Read along to discover more about Cat's experiences!

You mentioned in your staff introduction that you found this server through Griz's recommendation; how did you two know each other before?

Well, we were in a server together before and we got acquainted there.
Fairly grew close with each other I believe and then, yeah, we just started sharing things from our daily lives.

GRIZ: I believe?

Shoo.

OFFENDED.

When are you not?

Why do you always offend me then?

Because I should, no?
:DDD

Excuse me?
Why should you ?

It's a job I have, okay.

Let's divorce.

NOW WHY DO YOU
ALWAYS BRING DIVORCE
IN BETWEEN

WHY DO YOU ALWAYS
OFFEND ME? SAME THING. Anyways, bye.

.... damn she offended offended

Typical wife behavior, please ignore.

Griz (Griz#2464) is an org assistant. She is also the leader of Yearbook Club and secretary of K-Language Club and today we will be interviewing her as a staff member.

GRIZ

Take a look into Griz's role as an organizer assistant and what that has been like from the start and her obsession with K-Language Club:

Do you have any fun or nice memories as a trainee?

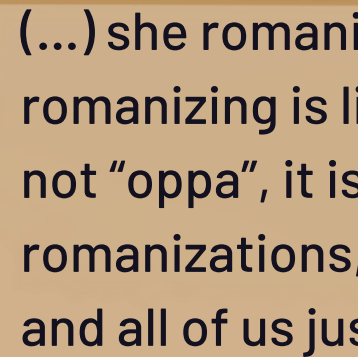

I think the fun memory is that everyone is so chaotic. (...) Cat who started it, but basically, romanizing... really badly.

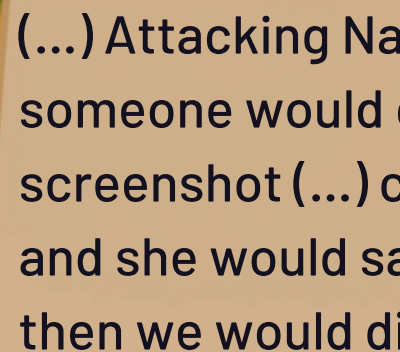

snort
Okay

Do you have any favorite moments or memories from the role?

(...) she romanizes way too much, and her romanizing is like, if you want to say '오빠', it is not "oppa", it is "oppar". These horrible kinds of romanizations, and she does that all the time, and all of us just want to kill her.

(...) Attacking Nae and Nae attacking us back (...) If someone would compliment her, she would take a screenshot (...) come to organizing staff channel and she would say something like, 'See!' (...) and then we would diss her.

(...) would you like to expand on the TEAM BEAR thing?

(...) Sara is a loser who does not accept the fact that Tae (Taehyung from BTS) is a bear. I am ready to accept that he is both a bear and tiger, but she will not have it. She is like 'No, he is a tiger, I do not care' (...)

On the topic of images, actually, I have been told that you consider yourself to have-

Griz, realizing what is coming: Ohh my god haha(...)
laughs is maybe crying inside
Listen (...)

I had one kind of... not an odd question, but a question that I think people reading this interview might like to know(...)

(...)I think people have had enough of me now laughs with my bold, underlined, and italicized text

Yeah.. laughs We all know at this point, it will be to do something or to check out something.

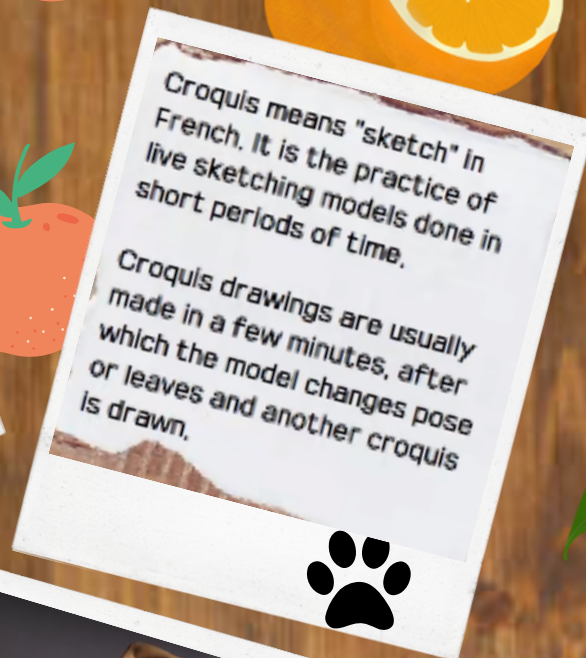

laughs* Yeah, I think people are just like 'Ugh, it is her again' (...)

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a park path lined with trees and benches, with the word "clubs" written in a large, white, cursive font across the center. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden-orange light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The path is paved with cobblestones and leads into the distance, flanked by rows of trees with dense, colorful foliage. Benches are placed along the path, and small, glowing lanterns are visible among the trees. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and inviting.

MEAGAN

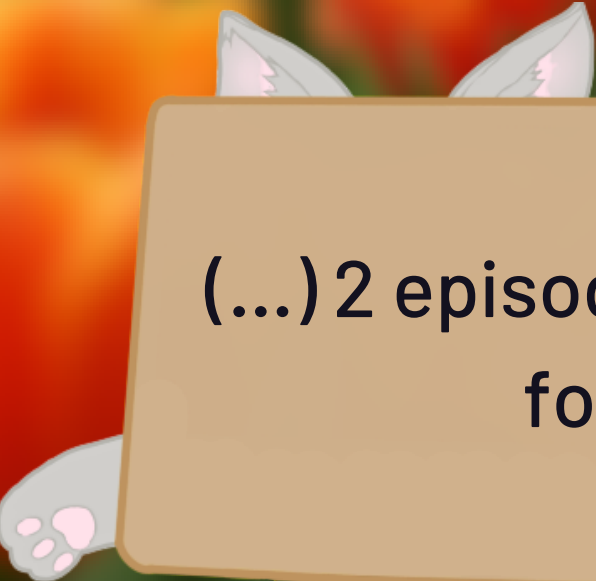

Could you please give a brief introduction to Anime club for those who have never been in it?

(...) Anime club is a fun club on the server. Our main activity is watching anime together but while we watch we also take a look into kinda the "behind the scene", in the sense of we look into who created the anime that we're watching (...)

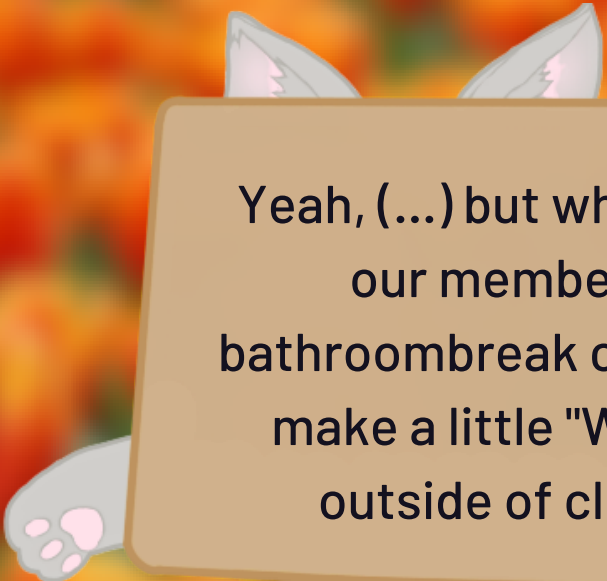

(...) 2 episodes a week up until the fourth episode.

How many episodes do you normally watch (...)?

Yeah, (...) but what often has been happening with our members is that they'll head into the bathroombreak channel in the main server or they'd make a little "Watch Club" and finish it together outside of club's hours (...) they're very fun.

You don't choose to watch more if everyone wants to?

How has your experience been as the leader of the club?

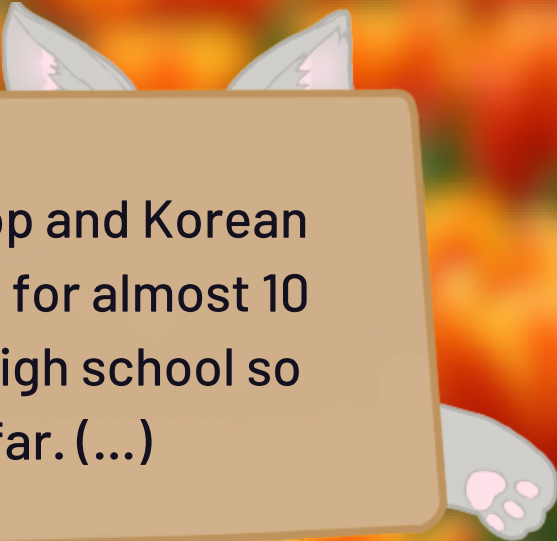

I'd say that for the most part it has been very great. (...) Even if there are a lot of members who come and go we always have a really good wave of people that makes the club fun. Because I can only do so much but what really makes the club are the club members. (...)

How did you end up interested in learning Korean?

I would say it was through K-Pop and Korean Pop culture. I listened to K-Pop for almost 10 years, I think I got into that in high school so it's been 8 or 9 years so far. (...)

(...) I would love to have new leadership members to help me (...)

(...) What are your goals for the club? (...)

(...) Why would you recommend that members join the club?

(...) We are very accommodating to beginners and, I think the club is perfect for people who've never been able to really delve into anime before (...). (...) And everybody in the club is so nice (...)

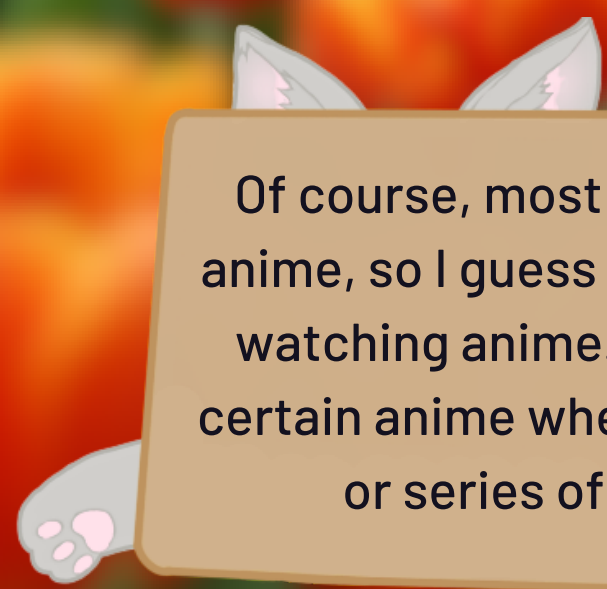

DARCY

*Preview of Darcy's interview about being in the Anime club.
Read along to find out more information.*

Well, Meagan is lovely. I probably have spoken at length about it, about how much I appreciate Meagan as the leader of the club and just as an anime friend and general human being, generally (...)

Of course, most of what we do in the club is watch anime, so I guess the memories are usually related to watching anime. But there are certain episodes of certain anime where I remember a particular meeting or series of meetings being really fun (...)

I love the club so much, and... because it's a purely fun club and not related to Korean, it's never been stressful for me. Meagan also puts a lot of effort into making the assignments very fun, and they don't usually take a lot of time either. I've had to put in more effort for the assignments for other clubs, and it can be almost stressful sometimes, but Anime Club has never been stressful. It has always been something I looked forward to

WASHAH

Let's take a look at Washah's experience in the Song Analysis Club and why she enjoys being in the club.

Why did you choose this club, when there are so many others to choose from?

I have always enjoyed (...) I also wanted to see how (...), which helped me gain multiple perspectives and understand the music in a new light.

You said that opinions are always welcome, so how is the atmosphere or the ambience between being in the club and in the meetings?

Honestly, the ambience of the club is very welcoming! I always look forward to (...) We secretly call our club (...) because (...)

So, I would like to ask you, what is your favorite thing about the club? You said a lot about their music - it's the music, it's the leaders, what it is... one thing.

The one thing I would choose would be that I get to learn a lot. (...) the club meetings always provide us an opportunity to (...) Honestly, at the end of the meeting, I always think that my fellow members are amazing and (...)

So, what was your expectation going into this club?

I actually didn't have any sort of prominent expectations other than (...) which were all (...)

TOURNAMENT

This was the third edition of 아미 KSG Tournament which was held in March. It was a trivia-style game, heavily based on Family Feud, a game show. Each question had more than one answer. The difference between these questions and Family Feud's was that they were not survey-based but rather Nae's choices. These questions pertained to seven categories.

The team representative who first pushes the "Buzz" button after the question has been read goes first to answer. The team receives the question and has two minutes to discuss it in order to obtain any answers that may be on the board. The correct ones would be revealed on the board. Each team starts with 500 hearts.

Nae (yaadealid#2527) is a Mentor, a member of Organizing and a Head Staff on the server. She's also hard-working, helpful and a very fun person in general even though everyone is scared of her.

NAE

Take a look into what Nae had to say as the organizer of the third tournament and her journey organizing the tournament.

“... I think I always do mostly because I like to see when you guys struggle...”

“... you could see them second guessing like ‘oh Nae probably doesn’t have this one on the board, it’s too obvious’ or the opposite ‘it’s obvious so Nae has this on the board’. Just seeing the divide and like the confusion, that was very fun to watch”

“... I would encourage everyone to join. But yeah mostly it’s a fun time, you get a server point as well as hearts. It’s a great experience overall and you don’t have to make friends but can get to know the people on the server...”

What is a memory you made during the tournament that you remember and would like to share?

"...they had the correct answer to say and then Sous would have said something different and then ended up being completely disappointed that the answer that she gave was wrong when she could have given the answer that was there. And so just having her reaction after it happened so many times was very fun..."

Ana goes by "Ninha ✨#6878"
on Discord and is a very nice, sweet individual who speaks
Portuguese, English, and Korean!
In the recent tournament she participated with Genius Lab who truly had an underdog story.

ANA

Take a look into Ana's thoughts on Genius Lab's stunning victory and the name chosen for their rewarded role:

...So , Genius Lab was originally in last place, right; how did it feel for them to suddenly make such a big comeback?

So excited! At the start of the tournament. I thought,
"We are not going to win." Golden Closet had so many more points than Genius Lab. I thought "Oh no," but in the end we came back. It was so good.

Laughs

At that time I was at school because I needed to write a test. I was screaming. I was so happy for us(...) I saw you messaged
"we got 600 points" and I was like
"WOOAAH!"

What were the rewards you guys got as the winners?

we got a role (...)
but we are still deciding on the name. I think it was "Agust D."

You came up with that idea right?

Yes, Agust D makes sense and I'm so happy that you liked that

How did you come up with the name AgustD?

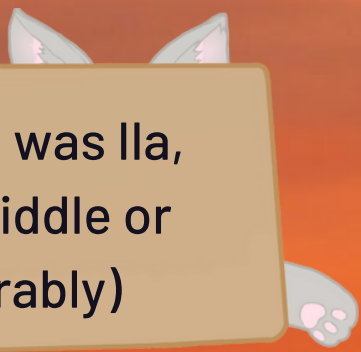

I saw the permission to dance performance on Netflix and I researched why Genius lab was the Studio Name, when Yoongi created Agust D. So Agust D are winners.

Who was the representative for Genius Lab?

In the beginning it was Ila, and then in the middle or end, YOU! (adorably)

Do you think you might want to be a representative for a future Tournament?

Yes! When I feel safe with my English, I think I will represent.

Nice! I hope you get to do that soon.

Thank you. (cutely)

Could you please rate the tournament out of 10? 10 being the best.

10!

who manages to balance her work life and student life simultaneously while being an active member of the server.

SOFIA

Sofia participated in the recent tournament, let's take a sneak peek at what she had to say about the tournament.

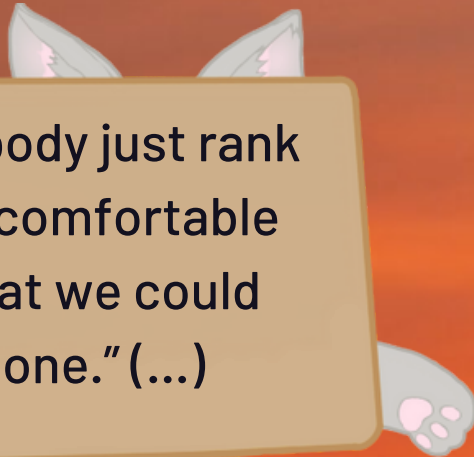

"I love Nae. She's great. She has this thing that she does where she makes an evil laugh and it's terrifying," (..)

(...) "As for Korean Language questions, there were probably going to be some that I didn't know, but I felt pretty confident in those categories" (..)

(...)“Then I suggested everybody just rank the order in which they felt comfortable within the categories so that we could choose leaders for each one.” (...)

(...)“We maybe just mentally communicated through something, being like: “Hey, this is what we're going to do.” This is kind of talking through the process of how we want to handle it.” (...)

(...)“And then I think someone else told me that I wasn't supposed to do that so I just deleted all my comments, but I still knew them. And then I Googled all the kimchi recipes. (...)

(...)“So I just yelled in the chat, I was like: “Rachel, join Golden Closet” in all caps. And she was like, I’ll join the Golden Closet.” (...)

(...)Nae's answers were good because they were neither easy nor difficult (...)

(...)Nae is very funny, kind, and... maybe a little evil.
